

Nicholas Chamberlaine School Attendance Pathway

The school will follow a staged approach and students will be monitored. Different strategies will be used depending on the stage they are at in the process outlined below. This is a guide and each case will be assessed and reviewed depending on each students' individual needs and which interventions will be most effective in supporting them to improve or maintain positive attendance.

